Dear Dr. Mc Allister:

On behalf of Peter Howley & the UCLA Symposia Administrators who are working on the organization of the Eighth International Papillomavirus Workshops, please allow me to thank you for your offer to contribute $2500 toward the support of the conference.

Naturally we are happy to comply with your request that the funds be used to support speakers &/or students from academia. Indeed, it is our intent that all speakers & other participants from the commercial sector pay their own expenses so that available funding can assist people with more restricted resources.

We will be pleased to reserve a registration slot for a representative of the CTR, & will be certain that you receive all mailings concerning the meeting. We will also publicly acknowledge your support at the meeting & in the symposium volume that results from it.

Again, thank you for your rapid reply to my letter of proposal & for your generosity. Please direct your contribution to Mr. Hank Harwood, Gifts Coordinator, UCLA Symposium on Molecular & Cellular Biology, 2032 Avocado Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90025.

Most sincerely,

Tam Broker
